Some of the most frequent (and loudest) complaints we hear from fellow network marketers include:

“I don’t hear from my sponsor or upline.”

“I’ve never been trained.”

“I don’t know what to do.”

“No one will help me.”

“I don’t understand the compensation plan.”

“I don’t know what to say to prospects.”

“I’m too embarrassed to ask.”

“Where can I find support and answers to my questions?”

Whether you are a USANA Associate within our team, crossline from us, or even with another network marketing company, we’ve solved these complaints, and many others, for you.

And it won’t cost you one cent.

We have created a number of options for you to receive information, ask questions, and get solutions:
